DAVE VANCE - LEAD PASTOR

JANUARY 28-29, 2023

Esther Part One: When God Seems Silent
Esther 1

1. Sometimes God seems _____
2. Seasons of silence reveals a _____ of _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
3. God's _____ proves that He is not _____, _____, or indifferent
4. Don't _____. Don't _____. _____ God.

There are seasons in our lives when it seems that God is distant, even silent. We can be left wondering "If God truly loves me and cares for me, why do I feel so forgotten?" In these moments it would be easy to be allured by the invitation of a world that calls loudly. It's so easy to see the sights and hear the sounds and turn there. In our despair we seek a distraction from the emptiness we feel. But it's all a lie. It only fills us with worthless noise. The truth is, when God seems silent, He is not absent. He is behind the scenes, in the nightshift of our lives, purposefully providing for us, sustaining us, and governing our lives for His purpose. We should not live in despair but in trust and hope that God's plan will be accomplished in us. ~Pastor Dave

NEXT CAMPAIGN

A 3-Year Giving Strategy with three main objectives:
Campus Upgrades, Church
Multiplication & Ministry Initiatives

As Crossroads Church enters the NEXT season of ministry, we believe God is calling us to reach more, serve more, and give more to make an even greater difference than ever before.
