Jesus could have been born in a manger, lived an easy life, died on the cross, rose from the grave, and still accomplished the mission. Instead, the God of all creation allowed Himself to be tempted, shamed, betrayed, rejected, brutally beaten, mocked, scorned, and crucified. Why? So that when we are weak and frail, struggle and fall, fearful and fighting, Jesus can say, "I know...I get it. I've experienced your life, and I conquered what you couldn't. As your High Priest, I am here with you, and I have the mercy and grace you need for this moment." ~ Pastor Dave
